

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS!

2023 KCA-KDOT Excellence in Partnering Awards

Sponsored by the Kansas Contractors Association & the Kansas Department of Transportation

The purpose of these awards is to recognize excellence in partnering. Components of the awards program are as follows:

1. Nominations submitted for the KCA-KDOT Partnering Awards program will be categorized by the district in which the project occurred and considered for an award in that respective district. There will be three levels for awards in each of the six districts based on dollar volume of the project:
  - Less than $500,000
  - $500,000 to $3 million
  - Over $3 million
2. A project must be at least 80% complete as of December 1, 2023 to be eligible.
3. It is important to provide specific examples of partnering on the project. (i.e. effectively resolved plan issues, combined phasing from three parts to two.) The criteria for determining winners shall include:

(a) Communications/Teamwork	(e) Quality of Construction
(b) Safety	(f) Innovations
(c) Trust in Partner	(g) Timely Completion
(d) Prompt Decisions	(h) Problem Solving
4. Please provide photographs of the project and discuss issues dealt with in your submission.
5. In addition to the district winners, one statewide award (Best of the Best) shall be selected from among all district-level winners.
6. Awards will consist of plaques or certificates recognizing the prime contractor, subcontractors, owner, consultants, and KDOT construction office for each winning project. Award presentations will be announced at the annual KCA convention in Overland Park and presented at the KCA-KDOT Partnering Conference in Wichita.
7. If submitting multiple projects for considerations, a separate nomination form must be completed for each project.
8. Nomination forms should be completed jointly by the contractor and KDOT. A copy of the nomination form is enclosed. Additional forms are available on KCA and KDOT's websites or you may contact the KCA office or your area KDOT office.

Submission Deadline is Tuesday, January 3, 2024
